STEPS IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION Display outline – Queensland Blind, Deaf and Dumb Institute at Woolloongabba

Front panel Organising idea

- QBDDI was the home of Qld's blind, deaf and dumb from 1888
- The buildings reflect their experience

Sub-theme 1

The buildings- history of the site

Sub-theme 2

- BDD people as workers
- BDD people at W'gabba in 2010

Sub-theme 3

- How did BDD people relate to the site – oral history and other stories
- How the site was adapted to BDD use and how it was memorised by them

Sub-theme 4

The world of the BDD – perception and communication: living differently

Sub-theme 5

Coorparoo and the future – a new philosophy – integration through new programs

CROZIER SCHUTT ASSOCIATES
MUSEUM, HISTORICAL AND HERITAGE CONSULTANTS

CS

Note: this is a summary of the messages of the exhibition. Develop by adding

- Sub-sub-themes
- Final text
- Images
- Objects
- Media
- Interactives